Terms apply. Limited-time promotional offer available to eligible users only, currently in the 50 United States and Puerto Rico, subject to change. Complete the participation requirements shown in the offer experience to become eligible for a 1-month Microsoft 365 Personal promotional token. No payment instrument is required for the promotional token, and participation in this offer alone does not automatically enroll you in a paid Microsoft 365 Personal subscription. To become eligible for additional promotional months, complete approximately 150 qualifying Bing searches per month. Qualifying searches must be genuine, distinct, user-initiated Bing searches performed after required setup is complete and using Bing as the default search engine. Repeated, automated, fraudulent, or abusive activity may not count. Other Microsoft subscriptions on your account may have separate recurring billing terms. Microsoft may modify, suspend, or end the offer at any time. Microsoft Services Agreement and Microsoft Privacy Statement apply. See site for full terms.
